TO PERFORM IN SAINT JOHN, HALIFAX AND MONCTON
Tickets on sale this Saturday!

Montreal, April 28, 2010 -- evenko is proud to present Celtic Woman in the Maritimes in Saint John July 12, Halifax July 13 and Moncton July 14. The all-female ensemble will perform their latest tour Songs from the Heart which has been garnering rave reviews since its launch in February. Tickets will go on sale this Saturday, May 1, at all regular outlets.

The Irish group is made up of Chloë Agnew, Lisa Kelly, Lynn Hilary and Alex Sharpe along with Celtic Violinist Mairead Nesbitt. Celtic Woman have a sound all their own, harnessing key elements from Irish song and applying them to contemporary hits.

In February 2010, the ensemble's most recent album, Songs from the Heart did its album debuted at # 9 on the Billboard Top 200. The album is also the group's fifth release to debut at # 1 on the Billboard World Music Chart. The album features contemporary hits including Mariah Carey's "When You Believe" and Billy Joel's "Goodnight My Angel" as well as Irish classics "Galway Bay" and "My Lagan Love".

Celtic Woman continues to enjoy tremendous success around the world. No other all-female ensemble of this particular adult contemporary genre can claim 5 million albums sold, two top 10 album debuts on the Billboard Top 200, 3 Gold and Platinum albums, 4 Top 5 Releases on the Billboard Top Video chart and a million concert tickets sold.
