The Gillett Entertainment Group and Live Nation are pleased to announce that multiple Juno Awards winner Colin James will perform in Moncton, Fredericton and Charlottetown,

The dates are part of his cross-Canada tour supporting his up-coming new release Rooftops and Satellites scheduled to be released this fall. When he set out to make Rooftops and Satellites, he had a vision for a gentler album, full of quiet, introspective songs. "Despite my best intentions," he says, laughing, "it didn't turn out that way." The change came about as a result of his songwriting collaboration with Tom Wilson, founder of the 1990s alt-rockers Junkhouse and now a member of roots-rock trio Blackie & the Rodeo Kings. "Tom and I really hit our stride together," says Colin who co-wrote eight of the album's songs with Tom and Tawgs Salter, who has written for Edwin and produced the debut album by rising synth-pop star Lights. "Tom's a super creative guy and he's tapped in at all times and Tawgs is a hot up-and-comer." Rooftops and Satellites is co-produced by Colin and Mike Fraser (AC/DC, Metallica).
